

Danielle Wilburn's Bio:

I am a Southern lady living the California dream :)

I am an executive producer at KCRA-TV in Sacramento, CA. Before moving to California in 2020 I was the morning executive producer at WRCB-TV in Chattanooga, TN. I moved to East Tennessee after spending nearly three years in Jackson, TN as the 6:00 p.m. producer during my first year and was later promoted to the 10:00 p.m. show and the senior producer. With all my career accomplishments, I decided to focus on my passion and purpose . I love to motivate others to be great. As a result, The Transition and Just Faith It were born! The Transition, allows me to push others to their highest level of greatness through the power of proper marketing and brand management. I win when people around me win. Just Faith It is a message given to me by God. I believe it's God's way of sharing His word through His vessel.
